2. In-Class Activity

After a brief review of the vocabulary, let students fill out the crossword. Encourage them to write a sentence for each answer, reinforcing sentence structure.

3. Post-Lesson Review

Collect the completed puzzles and compare them to the cheat sheet. Highlight any common mistakes and explain the reasoning behind tricky answers.

Common Mistakes and How to Avoid Them

Even experienced learners can slip up on certain words. Here are a few pitfalls:

- Gender Agreement: Words like "abuelo" (grandfather) and "abuela" (grandmother) often cause confusion. Remember that "abuelo" is masculine, "abuela" feminine.
- Verb Tenses: "Despertarse" is reflexive; ensure students use the correct reflexive pronoun (“me despierto”).

- Spelling Variations: “Tarde” vs. “tarde” – the accent is unnecessary, but keep the lowercase letter consistent.

Integrating Technology

Many teachers now use digital platforms to host interactive crosswords. Tools like Google Forms, Quizizz, or dedicated crossword generators let students solve puzzles online, receive instant feedback, and track progress over time.
